Film on Hippies At GOP Assembly Meeting Tonight

Parents, when your teenager or sub-teen brings home one of those small boppy records, do you ever stop to listen to the words that are being sung?

And if you do listen, do you understand what some of the terms really mean? Terms like "rainy day woman," "what does speed kill," "flower power," "turn on and vibrate," "mellow yellow," "UPS or Underground Press service."

Tonight at 8 p.m. at Cornell school cafeteria, the Albany Republican Assembly will show "The Hippies," a documentary film of the supposedly innocent "love ins" and "true happenings" for what they really are.

Ken Granger, news reporter and photographer, has chronicled the happenings of the Hippies from the Sunset Strip riots to their subculture in the notorious Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco.

Concerned citizens from all over the Bay Area have formed local groups in many communities called TACT (Truth About Civil Turmoil). For several weeks Granger will be speaking to them and showing his film strip. For Albany residents unable to attend one of his lectures in person, the Assembly is presenting the film free of charge.

"Being a parent is a difficult job," Mrs. Eldon Parr, new Assembly president, said, "but in this day and age with the deliberate attempt to subvert our youth, the task of being a parent has become doubly challenging. A modern day parent must be alerted and acquainted with the psychological pressures their children face each day when they are away from home if they are to be able to combat the ever-increasing tide of immorality sweeping the area."

"Recent newspaper stories have chronicled the fact that some of our very young Albany combat-wounded veterans of Vietnam, Lt. Roger (Bruz) Paine, who has been flat on his back in Letterman hospital for four months after suffering a shattered leg in action on the Delta, is home with his parents, Ray and Rosemary at 1241 Solano. Bruz can stand up or lie down but is unable to sit in his body cast. He's amazingly ambulatory, however."

NEW SUPERVISOR Joe Bort, who made quite a hit at the Chamber luncheon Monday, ruefully remarked, "In going about the county I have decided that everyone in Alameda County was a personal friend of Kent Pursell. The few who weren't had Rachel (Kent's wife) for their sixth grade teacher." He further stated, "I don't think I'm capable of filling Kent's shoes, but I hope you'll let me be an individual... and I hope as an individual, I can be an intelligent, courageous and honest legislator..." (Story and picture on the luncheon next week.)

IF YOU WANT to give your kids a real Halloween thrill, take them into the produce department of Dagna's Market to see the 100-pound pumpkin raised by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Woodard at 1014 Ramona.

TWO MONTHS from today is Christmas.

A TRADITIONAL fall event for several years has been Helen and Larry Baum's birthday party for his mother, whom everyone calls "Grams." A couple of years teenagers have been involved with marijuana in Berkeley," Mrs. Parr said. "Being adjacent to Berkeley presents Albany parents with even greater problems than they would have otherwise since every marijuana case involving an Albany child has a definite Berkeley connection."

"It is up to Albany parents to be 'intolerant' of Berkeley type antics as tolerance of wrongdoing only produces more of the same," the president concluded.

Debbie Clayton Is Little Miss Flame

The Cornell student will serve until another Little Miss Flame is selected next October. A total of 3,322 votes were cast in the "shop-at-home" promotion, according to Richard McSheehy of Albany Fire Department, who was in charge of the contest.

STREET DECORATIONS? IT'S UP TO MERCHANTS

Charles Silvera, chairman of the Christmas Decoration committee for Albany Chamber of Commerce, has announced that contributions received by Oct. 27 at the Chamber office will determine whether or not Albany has Christmas street decorations this year.

If adequate funds are not received from merchants, checks which have been sent in will be returned and there will be no decoration, Silvera said.

Last year the committee received $670. This was adequate to purchase a center display for the Solano-San Pablo intersection and the giant Christmas tree on the BART track.

The Chamber is now buying rather than leasing decorations and if adequate funds are received one year, there would be no need to solicit for funds again for perhaps five years, Silvera pointed out.

"Let's make this the year to buy the decorations," he said. It has been suggested that those having 20 feet or less of front footage contribute $15; 25-50 feet, $25, and 50 feet or more, $50.

Police Will Protect Trick or Treaters--Jensen

Next Tuesday, Oct. 31, is Halloween.

Police Chief Ralph Jensen has announced that Reserve Officers will be employed to insure the safety of Trick or Treaters, but he recommends that all young children be off the streets by dark unless accompanied by an adult.

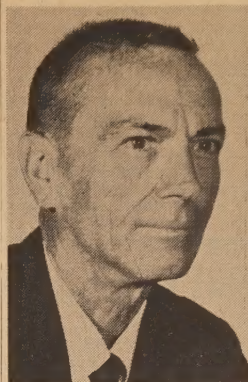

The curfew law will be strictly enforced, Jensen said. Anyone under age 18 found loitering in a without lawful business after 10 p.m. will be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Jensen reminded parents that some grisly aspects of the celebration are still with us.

In recent years there have been several accidents involving young trick-or-treaters because masks limited their side vision as they crossed streets.

He urged parents to check how well their children can see to all sides before letting them begin rounds and advised giving them flashlights or putting reflectorized tape on their costumes. Those made with flame-resistant or fireproof materials are best. In many neighborhoods it is a practice to leave porch lights on, both to help light the street and to let children know where they are welcome. In all neighborhoods smaller children should be accompanied by an adult.

Note of Thanks

We would like to take this method of thanking all those wonderful people who have donated blood for our mother, Mrs. Lillian Guidici. We are very grateful for all this assistance and extend our sincere thanks to each and everyone of you.

We also want to thank the Albany Police Department for their emergency assistance. They answered our emergency call within minutes, which we are told saved our mother's life. The citizens of Albany are very lucky people to have such cooperative Civil Servants in time of distress.

Open Letter to Albany

We do not know yet the exact final outcome of our annual spaghetti dinner. There are, however, some things that we do know. Over 400 plates were served plus more than a 100 seconds, thirds and fourths. This last indicates that it must have been good food.

We also know that the spirit of those working was just tremendous. Everything went smoothly from the time we started our food preparation Monday morning, right through until the last plate was served and the cafeteria cleaned up. The cooperation of those who helped through donations of supplies, time and effort, some of it almost back breaking, is recognized in the spirit in which it was done. It was really a community effort and the community will benefit.

The Albany YMCA Board of Management extends its sincere thank you and congratulations to all who participated in this successful effort.

Cabaret Ordinance Again Discussed by City Council

Following nearly an hour of discussion Monday night, Albany City Council decided to devote another work session to the cabaret ordinance, which has been hotly protested by Albany tavern owners.

There was no indication what will happen to the ordinance, the second proposal by Council to provide additional revenue which has met opposition by those affected. The first, a property transfer tax, was strongly opposed by real estate men and has not been put into effect. The cabaret ordinance, designed as both regulatory and tax-producing by imposing a business license of $100 a quarter on those places with live entertainment, was passed as an emergency ordinance. Almost immediately, the tavern owners objected. One of six places affected has since dropped live entertainment.

Andrew Serb of Serb's was spokesman Monday night representing Albany Beverage License Owners. He again described the ordinance as discriminatory and the fee as exorbitant. He said it would not produce enough revenue to justify its discriminatory nature and that if places with live entertainment drop it, the city will lose additional sales generated by live entertainment in gross sales.

Administrative Officer James B. Turner explained the ordinance, which was passed subject to review.

Councilman George Hein asked Serb if the fee were cut to $5 as in Oakland, would it be satisfactory. Serb said no.

The spokesman and Council agreed regulation is necessary but Serb suggested the new fee apply only to new businesses, old ones which change types of entertainment.

Serb said repeatedly that the production of additional revenue should be spread throughout the entire business community, not just one industry—especially when only six are affected.

Councilman Lewis Howe stressed that the reason for the cabaret ordinance was to prevent a honky-tonk atmosphere similar to what once operated in El Cerrito before responsible government got rid of it.

A willingness to negotiate the fee was expressed by Councilmen.

ago, Grams was the hit of her own party singing "The Old Rugged Cross" in a firm, sweet voice. This Oct. 15, when she became 90, Grams once again entertained dozens of well-wishers by singing her favorite hymn—not once but four or five times. Before the party she didn't believe she'd feel well enough to attend, but once she arrived she was the belle of the ball and had a marvelous time. Many more happy birthdays, Grams, you're quite a gal!

MCDONALD'S Hamburgers on San Pablo Ave., has increased the size of its parking lot by 19 spaces, according to John McDonald, manager. There is now space for 74 cars instead of the previous 55. And they need them all.

LARUKA COUNCIL Degree of Pocahontas, Laruka Council 46, will hold a dessert whist Thursday evening, Oct. 26, at 8:30 p.m. at the Foothill Blvd. Women's club, 2535 Mason St., Oakland. Score cards are 50 cents each. Whist chairman is Mrs. Hazel Manica. A short meeting for members of the council will precede the game at 7:30 p.m.

Last Monday evening was its usual success despite the panting-hot evening. Chairman George Hein skipped the night session of League of California Cities in San Francisco to stay in the Cornell school kitchen dispensing food.

EVERY MONDAY we receive phone calls that go precisely like this: Caller: What's your deadline for classified ads? Us: 5 p.m. today. Caller: How much? Us: $1.20 for 20 words or less. Caller: Can I give it to you now? Us: We don't take them by phone. You will have to come in or if you want to wait until next week, you can mail it in with your check for $1.20. Actually, we could put our answers on tape and hook it up to the phone. Maybe this item will give some potential callers the information they seek.

RADIO TALK shows seem to be the rage right now and are being hailed as an outlet for the "little guy" to speak his mind. More often, it seems, the caller is tuned out, cut off, verbally abused or otherwise embararrassed. Can't understand why anyone would willingly put himself in that kind of a spot unless he's slightly tipsy or masochistically inclined.

OVERSIGHT DEPT.: Mrs. John A. Thompson of 1717 Madera, Berkeley, says her daughter, Carol, is also attending UC at Davis. Carol, a 1967 graduate of Albany High school, was co-editor of the award-winning Cougar. Apparently she was listed from Berkeley and we used only names from Albany in last week's story.

FIVE ALBANY policemen were in Oakland Friday assisting law enforcement officers control the incredible situation at the Oakland Induction Center.

LAST MAY Eleanore and Bill Miller were in Spain and their daughter, Mrs. Jack Heater, wrote to them. The letter finally got to the Millers on Oct. 22. Although it had been sent air mail, it had three postmarks and a couple of interesting notations on the back of the envelope: Giro Postal Rapido (send rapidly) and Seguro Economico (economical-ly).

Christmas Mail Deadlines Set

Reminding that the Christmas season is rapidly approaching, Postmaster George B. Kohler announced that the period Oct. 16 to Nov. 11 has been designated for the mailing of Christmas parcels by surface transportation to members of our Armed Forces overseas.

Space available (SAM) parcels should be mailed Oct. 21 to Dec. 1. Airmail parcel period is Dec. 1 to 11. Space available (SAM) parcels are gift parcels weighing not more than five pounds and measuring not more than 60 inches in length and girth combined, addressed to the Armed Forces in Vietnam. These parcels will be provided air lift service on space available basis from the West Coast.

Postmaster Kohler advised that all articles should be packed in boxes of wood, metal, solid fiberboard, or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard. All fiberboard boxes should be securely wrapped in heavy paper which materially strengthens the package. Each box should be well tied with strong cord. Unless completely packed and tightly filled, boxes are likely to be crushed. Sufficient cushioning material should be used to prevent any rattling or loosening of articles within the package. A slip showing list of contents and name of sender and addressee should be enclosed in the parcel. Forms 2966 or 2976-A, Customs Declaration, completed by the senders are required on parcels to many destinations. Patrons are advised to check with local post offices for information concerning these declarations.

Election of Peace Delegation Discussion Tonight at Cornell

All persons interested in re-turning the Democratic Party to its former humanitarian ideals and peace goals are urged to attend a public meeting tonight at Cornell elementary school library (corner of Solano and Cornell Avenues) at 8 p.m., according to Tim Fine, president of the Albany Democratic club, which is sponsoring the meeting.

Fine was recently appointed to the 115 member California Steering committee which will offer California's five million Democratic voters the opportunity to elect a "Peace Delegation" to the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago. The peace delegation will be pledged to a candidate and platform committed to (1) an immediate halt in the bombing of North Vietnam, (2) to negotiations involving all participants, and (3) to international guarantees of nonintervention in Vietnam.

Leading the discussion at tonight's meeting will be Fine and the other members of the Albany Democratic club who recently attended the historic convention of the California Democratic Council at Long Beach Sept. 30. They were Lottie Moody, Gerry Brunetti, David Tyler, Michael Palmer, Robert Goldstein, Leo Vuosalo, Joyce Lingo and Catherine Webb. Fine will also speak on his conversation with General James M. Gavin (Ret.) regarding the latter's candidacy for President of the United States.

Fine noted that the peace delegation stands an excellent chance of election, based upon a recent professional poll which showed that at this time it would get 39 per cent of the California Democratic vote. Fine urged all persons who desire to work within the traditional American democratic process in bringing about a change in this country's unfortunate war policy to attend the meeting. Those attending will receive a free copy of the outstanding convention keynote address by Dr. John Kenneth Galbraith, President Kennedy's Ambassador to India.

Editor, the Times:

The purpose of this letter is to express publicly the confidence we have in the Albany Unified School District, including the Board of Education members, the Superintendent of Schools, the professional staff, the non-professional staff.

We, the undersigned, are graduates of Albany schools. We are also property owners and or taxpayers. We all have children attending Albany public schools.

We feel our children are fortunate in experiencing the same INDIVIDUAL attention we received. We appreciate the fact that our children can attend neighborhood schools. This experience provides a built-in sense of security so necessary in today's troubled world. Above all, we appreciate the quality education program provided the children and youth of Albany for years, ranging from having school libraries for at least 25 years to the current health education programs.

Editor, the Times:

Perhaps, now is the time, for Albany City Council to establish an action committee to study how the Albany property owners tax burden can be made more equitable.

For 10 years, the Albany School District has attempted to receive financial or Federal assistance for those children now living in University Village. This annual attempt for accomplishment has failed each and every year. It appears that a broader base and a more active organization is necessary to undertake a study and move towards accomplishing these two objectives:

1. Revise and get passed a bill similar to AB504, which would assist the city for the educational costs of those families living in the University Village, and make all persons carry their fair share of the tax load for education.

2. Effectively transfer from the city's collection operation the 35 cents which is annually collected by the city for exclusive use for the School District. The true cost for education should be shown as part of the School District budget, not hidden as part of the city's budget.

This confusing city school method of collecting tax monies should be honestly untangled. Albany's taxpayers should be advised that the true cost the city is not $2.09, but 35 cents lower—$1.74. school tax rates is not higher—$6.085, the Alameda County, right the City of Berkeley.

Albany used to pride having an equitable fair tax base. Many older citizens cannot keep their own homes present taxing and procedures and policies.

A formation of an committee, appointed by Council is needed NOW a positive program presented before the early next year.

Sincerely,
LEON RIMO

Speaker for
GOP Women Nov. 6

V. E. Wysinger

Vossa E. Wysinger, highly regarded author and publisher, will address the Albany Republican Women, Federated, Monday evening, Nov. 6, at 8 p.m. in the Teachers' Lunch Room of Cornell school. Wysinger is a native of California and a 27 year resident of Berkeley. He is actively engaged in the civic and political affairs of the community; member of the CIO-AFL Metal Trades Council; member of the Republican State Central Committee of California; an area vice president of Alameda County Coordinating Republican Assembly; member of the Alameda County Republican group; and vice president of North Berkeley Republican Assembly. As director-at-large in the California Republican Assembly, Wysinger is a member of the State and National Affairs committee of that organization.

His recent book, "The Celestial Democracy," is a compact study which deals with the principles and philosophical phases of politics. It has received favorable reviews from educators throughout the nation and is currently being considered as a textbook by several Eastern colleges.
